ABOUT US

Veto Sports has become a major player in the Australian football industry.

Veto Sports is based in Brisbane, however we own and operate factories abroad, which give us control over the manufacture, quality, design and delivery of all our products. Order direct from us and cut out the middleman.

Why order from Veto Sports:

- Lowest Prices - Our prices are amongst the lowest in Australia. This factor has contributed to our rapid growth and our customers know that they are making huge savings by choosing Veto.
- Best Quality - All products are subject to stringent quality testing to ensure that all goods manufactured meet our high standards
- One-Stop Solution - We cover every aspect of football, including training and match apparel, training equipment, speed and agility, dress polo's, footballs, bibs, markers, portable goals, referees gear, coaching DVD's – see our website for a full range of products. We also manufacture goods to suit the exact specifications of our customers eg club kits.
- Fast Delivery – We are accustomed to shipping goods all around Australia and overseas. We carry all products in stock, so you will not have to wait weeks or months for your order.

We are the proud sponsors of the Veto Premier League – Brisbane's Premier Men's Competition. We also sponsor the Inter-District League in Newcastle, and football leagues in Perth.

In Australia, we supply FFA, Football Queensland, NNSW Football, Football West, Football Tasmania as well as hundreds of retailers, schools and football clubs.
